

Radical Relationship

Dan MacGillivray ~ June 19, 2016

What you do is a reflection of what your heart values.

So stop telling lies. Let us tell our neighbors the truth, for we are all parts of the same body.

Ephesians 4:25 NLT

1. Be Real

“Although my memory is fading, I remember two things very clearly. I am a great sinner, and Christ is a great Savior”.

~ John Newton

And “don’t sin by letting anger control you.” Don’t let the sun go down while you are still angry, for anger gives a foothold to the devil.

Ephesians 4:26-27 NLT

*You have heard that our ancestors were told, “You must not murder. If you commit murder, you are subject to judgment.” But I say, if you are even angry with someone, you are subject to judgment! If you call someone an idiot, you are in danger of being brought before the court. And if you curse someone, you are in danger of the fires of hell.

So if you are presenting a sacrifice at the altar in the Temple and you suddenly remember that someone has something against you, leave your sacrifice there at the altar. Go and be reconciled to that person. Then come and offer your sacrifice to God.

Matthew 5:21-24 NLT

2. Keep Short Accounts

The Gospel is about Jesus coming to make things right.

If you are a thief, quit stealing. Instead, use your hands for good hard work, and then give generously to others in need.

Ephesians 4:28 NLT

3. Work Hard

If you are serious about community, Jesus will take you to the areas in your life you avoid.
